

A victorious day. Phylis Reinard, (far left) one of the Plaintiffs in Fitch v. Maryland. Deborah Holloway Hill, Esquire (middle) and Breon L. Johnson, Esquire (far right) are the attorneys who spearheaded the challenge to the State to continue prescription drug coverage for 90,000 State Retirees. (Ken Fitch, lead Plaintiff, was in the hospital in critical condition at the time the injunction was awarded.)